48 b. if the Property is transferred, conveyed, leased, rented, or made unmarketable by a voluntary act of 49 Seller without the consent of Broker, during the time period or any extension of said time period;

50 c. if within ______ calendar days of the final termination, including extensions, of this Agreement, 51 the Property is sold, conveyed, or otherwise transferred to anyone with whom the Broker has had negotiations or 52 to whom the Property was shown prior to the final termination. In the event of an exchange, permission is hereby given to the Broker to represent such parties as Broker may deem appropriate and collect compensation from them provided that there is full disclosure to all parties. If completion of sale is prevented by default of Seller, or the refusal of Seller to accept an offer in accordance with the price and terms of this Agreement, then upon event, Broker is authorized to take any action reasonably necessary to collect said commission. If completion of sale is prevented by a party to the transaction other than Seller, Broker may collect its commission only if and when Seller collects damages by suit or otherwise, and then in an amount not less than one-half of the damages recovered, but not to exceed the above compensation after first deducting title expenses, escrow expenses and the expenses of collections if any. Broker is authorized to cooperate and divide with other brokers the above compensation in any manner acceptable to Broker. Seller hereby irrevocably assigns to Broker the funds and proceeds of Seller in escrow equal to the above compensation. In the event any sum of money due under this Agreement remains unpaid for a period of thirty (30) days, such sum shall bear interest at the rate of ( ________) percent per annum from the due date until paid.

If applicable, Broker and the designated licensee shall disclose to Seller any election to act as an agent representing more than one party and obtain the written Consent To Act Form signed by all parties to the transaction.

c. Broker may also have licensees in its company who are agents of the Buyer who may show and negotiate an offer to purchase Seller's Property. #### WHAT EVERYONE SHOULD KNOW ABOUT EQUAL OPPORTUNITY IN HOUSING

The sale and purchase of a home is one of the most significant events that any person will experience in their lifetime. It is more than the simple purchase of housing, for it includes the hopes, dreams, aspirations, and economic destiny of those involved.

THE LAW - Civil Rights Act of 1866

The Civil Rights Act of 1866 prohibits all racial discrimination in the sale or rental of property.

Fair Housing Act

The Fair Housing Act declares a national policy of fair housing throughout the United States. The law makes illegal any discrimination in the sale, lease or rental of housing, or making housing otherwise unavailable, because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.

Americans with Disabilities Act

Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act prohibits discrimination against the disabled in places of public accommodations and commercial facilities.

Equal Credit Opportunity Act

The Equal Credit Opportunity Act makes discrimination unlawful with respect to any aspect of a credit application on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age or because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program.

State and Local Laws

State and Local laws often provide broader coverage and prohibit discrimination based on additional classes not covered by federal law.

THE RESPONSIBILITIES

The home seller, the home seeker, and the real estate professional all have rights and responsibilities under the law.

For the Home Seller

You should know that as a home seller or landlord you have a responsibility and a requirement under the law not to discriminate in the sale, rental and financing of property on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin. You cannot instruct the licensed broker or salesperson acting as your agent to convey for you any limitations in the sale or rental, because the real estate professional is also bound by law not to discriminate. Under the law, a home seller or landlord cannot establish discriminatory terms or conditions in the purchase or rental, deny that housing is available or advertise that the property is available only to persons of a certain race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.

For the Home Seeker

You have the right to expect that housing will be available to you without discrimination or other limitation based on race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.

This includes the right to expect:

- · housing in your price range made available to you without discrimination
- equal professional service
- the opportunity to consider a broad range of housing choices
- · no discriminatory limitations on communities or locations of housing
- · no discrimination in the financing, appraising or insuring of housing
- reasonable accommodations in rules, practices and procedures for persons with disabilities
- non-discriminatory terms and conditions for the sale, rental, financing, or insuring of a dwelling
- to be free from harassment or intimidation for exercising your fair housing rights.

For the Real Estate Professional

As a home seller or home seeker, you should know that the term REALTOR® identifies a licensed professional in real estate who is a member of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTOR®. Not all licensed real estate brokers and salespersons are members of the National Association, and only those who are can identify themselves as REALTOR®. They conduct their business and activities in accordance with a strict Code of Ethics. As agents in a real estate transaction, licensed brokers or salespersons are prohibited by law from discriminating on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin. A request from the home seller or landlord to act in a discriminatory manner in the sale, lease or rental cannot legally be fulfilled by the real estate professional.

DEED AND PROPERTY COVENANTS OR RESTRICTIONS OF RECORD

During the history of our country, some persons have placed restrictions on property based on race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin. Generally, these restrictions are void and unenforceable, with limited exceptions for particular types of religious housing and housing for older persons. The publication of these void restrictions may convey a message that the restrictions continue to be valid. Any time a sales associate or broker is asked to provide a copy of the covenants or restrictions of record relating to the use of a property the following message should be included:

These documents may contain restrictions or covenants based on race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.

Such restrictions or covenants generally are void and unenforceable as violations of fair housing laws.

- Be assured that all property is marketed and made available without discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, handicap,
- familial status, or national origin. Should you have any questions regarding such restrictions, please contact your attorney.

THE EQUAL OPPORTUNITY PROGRAM

The NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® has developed a Fair Housing Program to provide resources and guidance to REALTORS® in ensuring equal professional services for all people.

The Code of Ethics

Article 10 of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® Code of Ethics requires that "REALTORS® shall not deny equal professional services to any person for reasons of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin. REALTORS® shall not be a party to any plan or agreement to discriminate against a person or persons on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin."

A REALTOR® pledges to conduct business in keeping with the spirit and letter of the Code of Ethics. Article 10 imposes obligations upon REALTORS® and is also a firm statement of support for equal opportunity in housing.

Fair Housing Partnership

The Fair Housing Partnership negotiated with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) outlines a program of voluntary compliance. REALTORS® voluntarily participate in activities and program to acquaint the community with the availability of equal housing opportunity, to establish office procedures to ensure that there is no denial of equal professional service, to make materials available which will explain this commitment, and to work with other groups within the community to identify and remove barriers to fair housing.

FURTHER ASSISTANCE

Local Boards of REALTORS® will accept complaints alleging violations of the Code of Ethics filed by a homeseeker who alleges discriminatory treatment in the availability, purchase or rental of housing. Local Boards of REALTORS® have a responsibility to enforce the Code of Ethics through professional standards procedures and corrective action in cases where a violation of the Code of Ethics is proven to have occurred.

Complains alleging discrimination in housing may be filed with the nearest office of the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), or by calling HUD's Discrimination Hotline at 1-800-669-9777, 1-800-290-1617 (TYY). For information and publications on fair housing, call HUD's Fair Housing Information Clearinghouse at 1-800-343-3442.
